FUGAZY & ROONEY LLP

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Writer's Direct Dial:
516-584-1642
Writer's Direct Email:
afugazy@fugazyrooney.com
Please Reply to Glen Cove

USDS SDNY
DOCUMENT
ELECTRONICALLY FILED
DOC #:
DATE FILED: 5/1/08

MEMO ENDORSED

April 30, 2008

The matter has been referred to Judge Eaton for General Pretrial supervision and requests of this nature should be directed to him. Because today is the last day to answer or move, I will grant an extension to June 2, 2008. SO ORDERED
USDJ 5-1-08
cc Magistrate Judge Eaton

VIA FACSIMILE (212) 805-7949

Judge Kevin Castel
U.S. District Court, Southern District of New York
500 Pearl Street
New York, NY 10007

Re: Donald Faison v. Leonard St., LLC, 08 CV 02192(PKC)

Dear Judge Castel:

We represent the Defendant in the above referenced action. We write to request that Your Honor grant the Defendant a thirty day extension, until June 1, 2008, to answer, move or otherwise respond to the Complaint. The Defendant acknowledges proper service of the summons and complaint in this action.

Defendant's response to the complaint is due May 1, 2008. This is the first such extension. The Plaintiff in this action is pro se. Earlier this month, Plaintiff had informed the undersigned that his cell phone had been disconnected, that he had no other phone and that the only way to reach him was by calling his wife's cell phone. In order to secure Plaintiff's consent to this adjournment, the undersigned endeavored to reach Plaintiff by calling his cell phone (which is still disconnected) and calling the number that was purported to be his wife's cell phone. His wife's cell phone takes a message, but does not identify the owner of the phone. I left a message, but have not received a return phone call. I am copying Plaintiff on this correspondence to his last known address via regular mail.

Thank you for your courtesies in this regard.

Very truly yours,

Amanda M. Fugazy

cc: Donald Faison